Since 1973, the NFL has maintained a blackout policy that states that a home game cannot be televised locally if it is not sold out 72 hours prior to its start time. Before that, NFL games were blacked out in the home team's market even if the game was a sellout. The NFL is the only major professional sports league in North America that requires teams to sell out in order to broadcast a game on ...

One topic that can generate ongoing confusion for business owners is the classification of an employee as exempt or non-exempt. This can be compounded by the fact that failure to comply with the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and applicable state and local laws and regulations by misclassifying an employee may result in costly penalties.
